Reading the Strong Feature of the Opening-Sharp Advance in Bid on C. B. & Q. Bonds-New York Truetions Buoyant in Early Trading.

NEW YORK, Jan. 18 .- While the dealings in today's market again displayed no little irregularity, the general tendency of prices continued upward and specu lative interest was well diversified. As was the case yesterday, expectations that the bank statement would make a very strong showing played some part in shaping the drift of prices, and otherwise there were virtually nothing worth noting that appeared to enter into discussion of the financial situation.

London furnished small and irregula changes in prices for American stocks. and the dealings here for foreign account were again in only nominal volume.
